

Director's Report: July 15, 2009

Programming:

Wine tasting next week, mandatory attendance for all trustees.

Lorax movie, over 60 people.

New "carbon watch" group taking with monthly speakers.

Children's story hour to resume until new years, if attendance improves it will continue.

Children's music hour begins, CC grant funding likely.

On the same page programming:

Eric Hoffner: "That Log's Got Potential" paid up for round II in fall, moved to spring.

Amy Klippenstine, garden workshop?

Art: Now, Steve Plumer.

Grants: All grant money must be spent by September 30th

Grants wrapping up, some money unspent, but grants were really too large.

Bookmobile: Program likely to restructure to audio books and DVDs, maybe no deposit collection.

Gates: computers in, need to be installed.

Shifting: I am in touch with Jerry Champagne about moving computers to accommodate the new teen area. Working slowly towards wireless APRS network to accommodate new computers.

Money: See budget, raise for Ashley?

Children's Books: See letter.

KOHA, likely implementing May 2010 this is to accommodate the school.
